

George A. Ivey, B.Sc., CES, CESA, P.Chem, EP
President and Senior Remediation Specialist
Ivey International Inc.

George (Bud) Ivey, is the President and Senior Remediation Specialist with Ivey International Inc. He is an environmental professional with over 30 years of site assessment and site remediation experience.

His educational background includes: Synthetic Organic Chemistry, Geological Engineering, and a Master's in Project Management.

He has worked on greater than 3500 environmental international remediation projects, which have taken him to over 60 countries globally. He has more than 20 international patents and trademarks, and is the recipient of several international environmental awards.